THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1942

THE PLAN FOR SOCIAL SECURITY: FULL OUTLINE

"A BRITISH REVOLUTION": NO CASE FOR PATCHING

National Minimum Standard

Sir William Beveridge argues for the need for a comprehensive social security system that goes beyond the limitations of existing services. Minimum standards must be set to ensure the well-being of all. Beveridge stresses the importance of a system that provides for all, not just a select few. He believes that a comprehensive social security system is essential for the future of the nation.

4th PENSION FOR MAN AND WIFE

Child Allowances

Sir William Beveridge, author of the plan.

THE BENEFITS

And the Contributions

The financial aspects are central in any social security system. Beveridge discusses the contributions and benefits that would be necessary to support such a system. He emphasizes the importance of contributions being fair and reasonable for all.

THE FUTURE OF ASSURANCE

A Wasteful System

Under the current system, people are denied the support they need. Beveridge argues that a wasteful system must be replaced with a comprehensive one that provides for all.

THE CASE FOR PLANNING REFORMS WHILE WAGING WAR

Translating Atlantic Charter Into Deeds.

Sir William Beveridge.

Some Points from the Report

The Government should not fail to utilize the opportunities presented by the war for planning reforms. Beveridge's report emphasizes the importance of planning reforms while waging war.

WARTIME COMPENSATION

There are a number of potential problems that must be addressed. Beveridge discusses the need for compensation arrangements that are fair and reasonable for all.

EFFECT ON PRESENT SERVICES

The effect of Sir William Beveridge's proposals on the present structure of the social services is examined in the following article. There are a number of potential issues that must be addressed.

SOME POINTS FROM THE REPORT

The Government should not fail to utilize the opportunities presented by the war for planning reforms. Beveridge's report emphasizes the importance of planning reforms while waging war.

GERMANS IN MARSEILLE

A German infantry detachment marching through Marseille after Hitler had broken the armistice and entered Unoccupied France.

FOOD FACTS

WINTER FACTS

MILK

In winter, even the most perishable goods are eaten at a calculated rate so as to ensure milk for those who need it most. The Ministry of Agriculture forecasts a 20% drop in milk production in the winter. The Ministry is taking steps to ensure that milk is available for those who need it.

A PRECAUTION

Reserve Trustee to change plans for milk supplies in the event of any unforeseen circumstances. The Ministry of Agriculture is taking steps to ensure that milk is available for those who need it.

FOOD FACTS

MILK

To ensure adequate milk supplies even in the darkest days, the Ministry of Agriculture has established a Reserve Trustee. The Reserve Trustee is charged with ensuring that milk is available for those who need it.

PORT COUNTRY

Tea

To ensure adequate milk supplies even in the darkest days, the Ministry of Agriculture has established a Reserve Trustee. The Reserve Trustee is charged with ensuring that milk is available for those who need it.

FOOD FACTS

MILK

To ensure adequate milk supplies even in the darkest days, the Ministry of Agriculture has established a Reserve Trustee. The Reserve Trustee is charged with ensuring that milk is available for those who need it.