

GENIUS NO.182 SET BY PUCK

Instructions

Six across and six down solutions could be 22 (which is unclued) and are not further defined. All the clues to the other solutions have an unwanted 22, either in their word-play or definition.

Deadline for entries is 23:59 GMT on Saturday 1 September. You need to register once and then sign in to theguardian.com to enter our online competition for a £100 monthly prize.

CLUES

ACROSS

- 1 Sort of cups found in auctions? (7)
- 5 In the morning, Emma's left in plane (6)
- 8 Start of Eton's PE teaching (5)
- 9 Running second out of seven runs (9)
- 11 Turtle country (7)
- 13,16 American wearing new chinos (8)
- 15 Cans food (6,5)
- 20 Chaste organ playing (4,7)
- 23 iPad's mobile platform (4)
- 24 Young female given a clue by a place Paul wrote to (7)
- 27 Drive off after permission to leave fish in the sea (6,3)
- 28 See 26
- 29 Very happy journalist, after eating dish (6)
- 30 Pirate had not started out wearing a crown (7)

DOWN

- 1 Goes across small river (6)
- 2 Purge to get rid of father? (6)
- 3 Give permission, please (3)
- 4 Back pass? (5)
- 5 Turpin's 11 when young? Not half! (4)
- 6 Instrument not originally orchestral (4)
- 7 Championing of stewed apples, when touring round America (8)
- 10 Split from carpenter into sadomasochism (6)
- 12 Headingley, primarily a place for playing cricket (5)
- 14 Discussed plot for outdoor event (4)
- 16 See 13
- 17 Regularly swims with friend, a Mexican rope-maker (5)
- 18 Tart in a photo, arrested by policemen? On the contrary (6)
- 19 President of a country? (8)
- 21 Players plan to lose a stone (6)
- 22 (See instructions)
- 24 Farmer with time for a little sex (5)
- 25 Somewhat flat 7up (4)
- 26,28across Chair a committee (9)
- 28 Artist turned up in saloon? (3)