Cluedoku

Set by Chameleon

Each clue leads to a number between 1 and 9. The grid should follow the rules of a sudoku puzzle: 1-9 in each row, column and 3x3 square. Be warned that only some clues have definitions, and a small number of clues use anagrams which are less direct than in a typical cryptic.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36
37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45
46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54
55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63
64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72
73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81

1. Amount that's due to the mafia, for example
2. Mr Eriksson gets English into second place
3. It goes before the decimal place
4. Vinegar essence on battered sole
5. Fido ending up as fur coats
6. Received a bite on the ear
7. Axis revolves without beginning to accelerate
8. Prime cut from sloth reeks
9. Charge conducted by nickel
10. One of a couple seen on a romantic date
11. After a new phone company? Here: T-Mobile
12. With a change of heart, this could be it
13. Daily fruit target is a third of Seville quince
14. Binary digit encrypted in network
15. Dial "M" viewed with Vertigo?
16. I am 13
17. Second square number
18. Hourglass figure
19. Last to sink below in pool
20. V Festival cut out parts of last broadcast
21. State succeeded her majesty
22. Scenes in X-Men Origins reveal how many claws Wolverine has!
23. Event finishes early on Saturday
24. Could it be an early number – in the forties, perhaps?
25. Drop odd ingredients in stewpot
26. It comes back in the evening
27. UFO demolished third of Parliament Square
28. River runs from river
29. Number of Romans in the New Testament?
30. Height reduced by a quarter of an inch
31. Swan's neck brace
32. Handily, it can be represented without a single digit
33. Balfour saw off Lab opposition
34. Top score in Scrabble
35. French figure seen in Around the World in 80 Days and 20,000 Leagues Under the Seas
36. Good place to get bronzed
37. Neoliberalism serves the individual
38. Called out to tow Fiesta
39. 192+284
40. Second person, not the first, living in sin
41. Tarantino's Hitchcock remake exceeded expectations… initially
42. One might well oppose it in a game of chance
43. 'ive loc8d info u require', texted withheld number
44. Set up Ringo Starkey on keyboards
45. Gnasher, say, could be made from this and calcium
46. Total taken from inverse of minus one minus zero
47. We hear it's behind, but also at the front
48. Man's arms' legs' digit
49. Knock back last of pint with oddly huge ice cube
50. 17 after PM May's number for "speed-dating"?
51. Finished without beginning
52. Number of syllables
53. A follower in the pack
54. Sunday Times covers semi-finalist
55. Group of Cubs start Scouts before turning eleven
56. Give 2c - π
57. Old Italian number from Vivaldi in valid arrangement
58. Pub-goer might aim to get there at 6 o'clock
59. Number of reindeer hides in sleigh to be skinned
60. More than a wee number reared in the undergrowth
61. Sounds like a veto from Merkel
62. Number of lines taken by bar staff
63. 'Ignore the bottom line' (from Introduction to Zen)
64. Veni, vidi, vici. Last ones standing proclaim this Roman figure
65. Time for Dolly to start working in a town in Essex
66. Suárez header stops the Spanish starting XI
67. With only seconds remaining, Officer Columbo outwits crook
68. Famous Italian family doctor struck off
69. Jive opener scrapped in favour of a foxtrot
70. It should be rounded up and down
71. Two thirds of it is three halves of itself
72. He has this table number
73. Hidden Figures to be screened in BFI venue
74. They might start a row
75. Traditional gospel number for Mark Twain
76. ꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏꝏ
77. Domino's topping with the most pips
78. There were once so many wonders wrapped up in Christmas Eve night
79. Second person in history to get quadruple heart transplant
80. Foul might result if right-back is tackled by the other side
81. It's next to nothing

chameleoncrosswords.wordpress.com © Chameleon 2019