

Newsworthy stories – Glossary

Editor: the person in charge of choosing what news stories reporters should report on.

Entertainment and Culture: a category of subjects including films, TV, art, music, video games, theatre, books, fashion, and food.

International: involving different countries around the world.

Newsworthy: interesting or notable, something that people would want to hear about.

Reporter: a person who researches a news story and either writes about it or talks about it on TV or radio.

