

News story 1

‘KFC serves deep fried rat’ – fake or real?

Devorise Dixon, a man from California, states he was served a rat at KFC and that the manager said sorry and offered him a free meal. ‘I turned down the free meal and have hired a lawyer instead’ states Mr. Dixon.

1. Who is sharing this story? Are they trustworthy? Have you heard of them before?	2. Who else is reporting on this? What are they saying? Look out for fake news clue words!
Devorise Dixon posted on Facebook: ‘It’s time for a lawyer. Besafe. Don’t eat fast food!!!’ 	The Telegraph: KFC confirm deep fried rat is actually just chicken. Hoax. KFC myth busters site: This is the fakest of fake news. The Independent: KFC fans happy to hear this story is false.

News story 2

‘Canadian zoo fined for taking bear out for ice cream’ – fake or real?

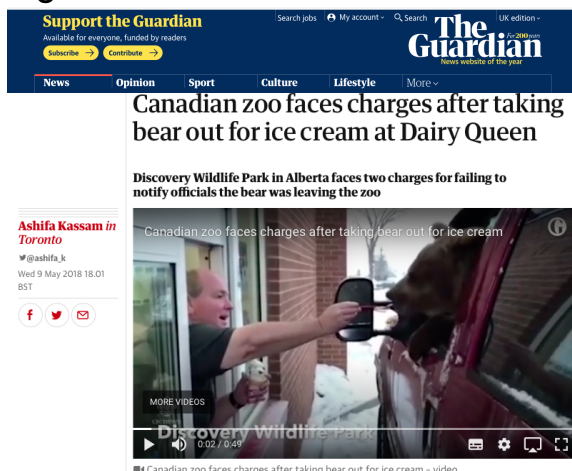

A zoo in Alberta, Canada, is facing a fine after forgetting to tell wildlife police that they were taking their one year-old bear, Berkley, out to a drive-thru ice cream shop.

1. Who is sharing this story?
Are they trustworthy? Have you heard of them before?

2. Who else is reporting on this? What are they saying? Look out for fake news clue words!

The Guardian, a well known and respected British news organisation:

Sky News:

Canadian zoo fined for taking a bear out for ice-cream.

Metro:

Zoo owners fined for taking bear to drive-thru and feeding him ice-cream.

The Independent:

Zoo faces charges after taking bear out for ice-cream.