Shocked teenager fined for feeding a pigeon

A teenager from Wales has been fined £100 for feeding a McDonald's chip to a pigeon.

Lauren-Paige Smith kindly offered one of her chips to a hungry bird. She was quickly given a harsh fine for littering even though no food was left on the ground. The rude council worker ignored her point of view.

Lauren said: "I can't believe I'm being treated so unfairly for doing a simple act of kindness!"
